DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to my wife, who has become the wisest person that I personally know. We have travelled a long way together on the ‘narrow path’, also known as the ‘furnace’, or the ‘school of hard knocks’. Therefore, like me, she had had to endure the process of having the naivety and foolishness knocked out of her by the painful experiences of life and from the obstacles and opposition, both human and demonic, that we have had to overcome.

I don’t doubt that there is more of that turbulence and opposition ahead, because we never stop learning and we never fully ‘arrive’, at least not in this life. Nevertheless, I can say this – she has changed more than any other person that I know, and all for the better. As a result, she is now my main and best adviser, and the most frequent source of insights and observations that she gleans from reading the Bible each day and which she passes on to me.
